The Syllabus

🚩 A non-profit knowledge curation platform committed to defending and strengthening a well-informed public sphere through the dissemination of high-quality information.

📚 Across 60 topics—Climate and AI, Literature and populism, Migration and cities—sources are tracked, monitored, and curated into a clean feed of high-quality content for individual subscribers.

Subscribers have access to three services: personalized content feed, curator picks by topic, medium, or language, and thousands of hidden gems in the library stacks. 📖👍
